

Adding Value to Your Club - 2

“If you are interested in advancing your career, the easiest and quickest way to do so is to add value to your employer.

Be Proactive. A leader should always be looking ahead to ensure his department is ready for any contingency. Since most businesses have a seasonal routine, the leader reviews past activity from a variety of perspectives in a search for ways to improve performance, and he continually seeks new ideas, events, and activities to keep the operations interesting and fresh for members.

Have a Plan. Every event, activity, project, or initiative should have a clear plan. A leader approaches every task with a plan, and he continually seeks new ideas, events, and activities to keep the operations interesting and fresh for members. A written plan a leader approaches every task with a plan, and he continually seeks new ideas, events, and activities to keep the operations interesting and fresh for members.

Follow Through. A leader should always be looking ahead to ensure his department is ready for any contingency. Since most businesses have a seasonal routine, the leader reviews past activity from a variety of perspectives in a search for ways to improve performance, and he continually seeks new ideas, events, and activities to keep the operations interesting and fresh for members.

SAMPLE

Summary. Adding value to your club is more of a mindset than possessing specific skills. It involves the willingness to tackle any problem, the understanding that every problem has a solution, and the realization that problems are opportunities in disguise. The choice to add value is up to you.”

Ed Rehkopf, Leadership on the Line – The Workbook

Discussion Point: How can you add value to your organization? How can you ensure your future success? How can you ensure your future success?

Take Away: You can add value to your organization and ensure your future success. You can add value to your organization and ensure your future success.

To purchase the complete set of Service on the Go visit the CRI Marketplace

Teachable Moments